

WHY WRITE THE BIBLE?

Have you ever opened your Bible and thought “Where do I start?” We have!

Over the past few years we have experimented with different ways of building life-giving spiritual rhythms into our daily lives. We now find great joy and encouragement in writing out bits of the Bible, as well as recording our thanksgivings and taking time to pray each day.

There are so many benefits to writing by hand:

- it helps you retain information more easily
- it engages your brain in a more active and full way and
- it often sparks creativity.

Writing out the Bible is a powerful practice. There's something about seeing God's Word written in our own handwriting that can speak to us in a new way. It doesn't have to be perfect and the results don't have to look pretty. You can do it first thing in the morning, last thing at night or while you're waiting for your tea to brew!

Why not give it a go?

HERE'S WHAT TO DO EACH DAY:

1. Thanksgiving - Start the day by writing down the things you are thankful for, big or small.
2. Write the Word - Grab a Bible and find the passage for that day. Write it out in your notebook.
3. Reflect - You could highlight words that stand out to you, or ask the question “What challenges me or gives me hope in the passage?”
4. Respond - Sometimes this looks like writing a prayer, or making a note of an action you want to take as a result of what you've read, or heard God say.

And one day a week:

Rest - Take a day to rest, reflect or catch up. Oh, and don't worry if you miss a day; we're not about perfection here!

This practice can grow as much as you like; there is no blue-print so feel free to be flexible and get creative!

2 Peter

BIBLE WRITING PLAN

Jesus' disciple (Simon) Peter is the author of this letter to the same group of persecuted Christians across Asia Minor (modern day Türkiye) that he wrote to in his first letter. At this point, Peter had received reports of false teachers in and amongst the church here. This letter focuses on his encouragement to stand firm in the midst of that and he directs the believers in how they can do that. Two themes he particularly focuses on are the authenticity of the Word of God, and the confidence we can have as believers in Jesus' promised return.
